

Cornell University

Humanities Building
University of Oxford

30 June 2014

9:00	Tea/Coffee/Registration	Seminar Room
9:15	Welcome/Keynote	Dr Gail Holst-Warhaft
	Session I	Sigrid Holmwood, moderator
9:30	Presentation 1	Toby Young, Charles Ogilvie, (and Elizabeth Carter)	Bombs to Blooms: an Exploded Retelling of the Slow (and Fast) Death that Grew Out of the Utopian Promise of Post-War Fertiliser Production
10:00	Presentation 2	Janet Banfield (and Cedric Mason)	A Confluence of Concepts: Melding Scientific and Artistic Perspectives on Hydrology of Natural and Engineered Systems
10:30	Discussion	Led by Sigrid Holmwood
11:00	Tea/Coffee
11:30	Panel	Sigrid Holmwood, Dr Katrina Charles, and Dr Francesca de Châtel, moderated by Dr Gail Holst-Warhaft	Short presentations and responses by each of the panelists, followed by a group discussion.
13:00	Lunch
	Session II	Dr Gail Holst-Warhaft, moderator
14:00	Presentation 3	Sara Davis (and Samantha Fernando)	A Living Entity: London's Water Network
14:30	Presentation 4	Avery Slater and Jessica Thorn	Water's Future Age: Collective Transitions for Farms, Fuel, and Livelihood
15:00	Presentation 5	Benedict Morrison, Victoria Ferris, (and Zhu Dan)	The Enemy Within: Deactivating Helminth Eggs in the Crusade for Clean Water
15:30	Discussion	Led by Dr Gail Holst-Warhaft
16:00	Tea/Coffee
16:30	Conference reflections	Dr Daniel Grimley
16:45	Group discussion	Led by all panelists, Dr Daniel Grimley, moderator
17:30	Break
18:30	Conference Dinner	Royal Oak, Woodstock Road	