The ‘Heritage Pathway’ is one of seven training pathways offered to graduate students and Early Career Researchers in the Humanities Division. A year-long programme of workshops, site visits and networking opportunities provides the skills and knowledge required to engage successfully with partner organisations in the heritage sector, whether through commercial or research-based collaborations.

https://www.humanities.ox.ac.uk/researcher-development-support
Michaelmas Term

Introduction to Heritage, Museums and Galleries
19th October
Heritage and its Audiences
2nd November
Case Studies in Collaboration: Oxford University Projects
16th November
Site Visit: Compton Verney Art Gallery and Park
30th November

Hilary Term

Researching, Curating and Interpreting Collections 25th January
Working with Collections: A How To Guide
8th February
Case Studies in Collaboration: Digital Projects
22nd February
Project Development Workshop
8th March

Trinity Term

Heritage: The International Context
3rd May
Careers in the Heritage and Museum Sectors
17th May
Case Studies in Collaboration: International Projects
31st May
Site Visits: Ditchling Museum of Art and Craft
Charleston Farmhouse
14th June

Get involved
Book a place: https://bookwhen.com/heritage training@humanities.ox.ac.uk

Oliver Cox (Heritage Engagement Fellow):
oliver.cox@humanities.ox.ac.uk
Alice Purkiss (Knowledge Transfer Partnership Associate): alice.purkiss@history.ox.ac.uk

Workshops are held at Radcliffe Humanities Building
3:00pm-5:00pm
followed by drinks and networking