

Children & Heritage

A colloquium from the Centre for the History of Childhood and the National Trust Partnership, University of Oxford

30th June – 1st July 2022

Thursday 30th June | Online | 1.45 – 5pm

1.45pm Welcome & Introduction

2pm Session 1: Children, Heritage & Identity

Keynote: 'The Past Defines the Future': Youth, Americanism, and National Memory at Philadelphia's 1926 Sesquicentennial Susan A. Miller | Rutgers University

Heritage in Diaspora; What is my Identity? Ataa Alsalloum | Liverpool School of Architecture

'Our History, my History, my Community's History': Children's Heritage & Community-Based Partnerships Lucy Grimshaw | Northumbria University & Lewis Mates | Durham University

3pm Break

3.40pm Session 2: Experiencing the Past Today

Touring the Past: Children, 'Tour Games' & Play in Heritage Education, 1760-1840 (and today) Barbara Gribling | Newcastle University

Children's Place in Heritage Landscapes Jon Winder | University of Kent

Learning through Clothes: Engaging the Perspectives of Children on Heritage Clothing Collections in a Post-Pandemic World Aude Le Guennec | Glasgow School of Art & Clare Rose | V&A Museum

Uncovering the History of Women and Girls at Christ's Hospital School through the 'Hertford Archives' Holly Winter | Christ's Hospital Museum

4.50pm Closing Remarks

5pm End

Registration via www.torch.ox.ac.uk/national-trust-partnership www.history.ox.ac.uk/centre-history-childhood ntpartnership@humanities.ox.ac.uk

MAGDALEN UNIVERSITY COLLEGE OF OXFORD

Children & Heritage

Friday 1st July | Magdalen College, Oxford & Online | 9.45am – 5pm

9.45am Welcome & Introduction

10am Keynote Caro Howell, Director of the Foundling Museum

10.40am Session 1: Children as Heritage Visitors

‘They who have tickets are desired not to bring Children’: Towards a History of Young People at Heritage Sites Matthew Grenby | Newcastle University

Evidence, Presence & Connections: ‘Histories of Childhood’ at the National Trust
Dawn Hoskin & Lucy Armstrong-Blair | National Trust

Listening to Children in the Canadian History Hall at the Canadian Museum of History
Monica Eileen Patterson | Carleton University

11.50am Break

12.05pm Session 2: Interpreting Children’s Spaces

‘Just as Jim Crow’: Public Schools and the Heritage of Black Children in Harlem, 1930-1970 Marta Gutman | City University of New York

Children in the Country House: Recreating Lanhydrock’s Victorian Nursery for Children & Young People Charlotte Newman & Ruth Lewis | National Trust

Presenting Narratives of Childhood: the Nursery at Audley End Andrew Hann | English Heritage
Architectural Ghosts: The Legacy of Children’s Homes and Residential Institutions in Britain, 1834 – 1990 Jim Goddard | The Care Leavers Association

1.15pm Lunch

2pm Session 3: Children, Heritage & Culture

‘How olden times phones work’: Reflecting on Children’s Understandings of Heritage in Telephonic Youth’s Engagement Work Aaron Andrews & Eve Colpus | University of Southampton

Children, music, & intangible heritage: discovering Elgar’s soundscapes
Joanna Bullivant | Oxford University & Ruth Hopkins | Musician & Animateur

The Ideal of American Girlhood: (Re)Creating Childhood Experiences at Colonial Williamsburg & at American Girl Abigail Fine | Queen Mary UoL

The Children’s Crusade Against Communism: Youth Propaganda & the Everyday in Cold War America Victoria Phillips | UCL & University of Oxford

3.10pm Break

3.25pm Session 4: Engaging Children with Heritage Today

Photographing Fairies: The Cottingley Fairies through the Lens of 2020 Alice Sage | National Trust

Embracing Interactivity at the Museum of Childhood Charlotte Slark | Queen Mary UoL

Young People’s Engagements with Heritage: Value & Meaning Joshua Blamire | University of Wolverhampton

Heritage Safeguarding Through Young People: Experiences from Uganda Barbra Babweteera Mutambi | Cross-Cultural Foundation of Uganda & Catherine Leonard | INTO: International National Trust Organisation

4.30pm Closing Remarks

4.45pm End